THE PROGRAM

The Washington Refuse & Recycling Association has established a scholarship program to assist employees and their dependent children who plan to continue education in college or vocational school programs.

This scholarship program is administered by Scholarship Management Services®, a division of Scholarship America®. Scholarship Management Services is the nation's largest designer and manager of scholarship and tuition reimbursement programs for corporations, foundations, associations and individuals. Awards are granted without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sexual orientation, gender, disability or national origin.

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants to the Washington Refuse & Recycling Association Scholarship Program must be:

- Employees or dependent* children of employees of regular member companies of the Washington Refuse & Recycling Association, as defined by the Washington Refuse & Recycling Association bylaws.

*Dependent children are defined as natural and legally adopted children or stepchildren, under the age of 24, living in the employee's household or primarily supported by the employee.

- High school seniors or graduates who plan to enroll or students who are already enrolled in a full-time undergraduate course of study at an accredited two-year or four-year college, university, or vocational-technical school. Employees may attend school part-time.

Full-time study is defined as full-time enrollment for the entire upcoming academic year.

AWARDS

If selected as a recipient, the student will receive a $2,000 award. Up to four (4) awards will be granted each year. Awards are not renewable, but students may reapply to the program each year they meet eligibility requirements.

PAYMENT OF SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarship Management Services processes scholarship payments on behalf of the Washington Refuse & Recycling Association. Payments are made on August 15. A check will be mailed to each recipient's home address and is made payable to the school for the student.

Association reserves the right to review the conditions and procedures of this scholarship program and to make changes at any time, including termination of the program.
